

Culture Tour & Everest Flight

Detail Itinerary

The Cultural Tour & Everest Flight is all about a mountain flight near the Everest region combined with a visit to several important towns of Nepal. Discovery Mountain recommends this program to provide you an exhilarating view of the mighty giant peaks combined with an experience of timeless destinations of Nepal.

The exciting mountain flight takes you along clear skies to the vicinity of Everest Region. Here, you will see some eight-thousanders of Nepal, in a 180° line-up at the north. This hour-long flight provides a stunning experience showing greater portions of the Himalayas of Nepal in under an hour. Relax and enjoy your drink from the comfort of your airplane seat watching the snow-capped peaks.

A near-complete introduction of this tiny Himalayan nation, this program will take you from the busy lifestyle of Kathmandu to the dense forests of Chitwan National Park where we will do a jungle safari. Also included in the program is a visit the lake town of Pokhara - the true gateway to the Annapurna Region. Further up, we will do a little bit of exploring in Lumbini and see the birthplace of Gautam Buddha - all of which combined, you will have the best introductory tour of Nepal.

The city of Kathmandu, in one sentence, is a sensory overload. In real sense, the adventure begins when you touch down upon the airport. Once out of the airport, you will immediately see that the traffic might not be up to par with global standards but you will notice the people running to and fro - creating a picture of a busy growing city. Thus begins your real experience of Kathmandu.

During this program you will go on a sightseeing tour to several UNESCO World Heritage Sites inside a city that is so tightly packed. During your stay in the valley, you will see the monuments and the culture of ancient cities of Bhaktapur and Patan. The magical and mystical combination of the old with a seemingly haphazard outlook of the new will leave you spellbound.

Chitwan is known for its thick forests. The jungles in Nepal's first and Asia's all-time popular Chitwan National Park provides you a contrasting experience from the concrete jungle of Kathmandu. Located in the subtropical plains (called Tarai) of Nepal, Chitwan is home to uncountable species of vegetation and wildlife. You will see elephants everywhere carrying people, carrying goods, relaxing, bathing, eating, and a lot of other activities. On top of that, the gushing rivers of Rapti and Narayani offer plenty of chance for swimming and canoeing - but beware of the crocodiles that seem to be ubiquitous in these waters.

Pokhara, sometimes called a lake town, or a valley of lakes, is named so because of its dotted lakes of varying sizes - at least seven of them! However, the beauty of this city and the of the lake town of Lakeside, is indeed invariable! Pokhara is in fact the beginning point of all trekking in the Annapurna Region. This adventure capital is more than just a stopover - it is a world of its own with natural attractions like lakes, caves, rivers, gorges, waterfalls, and a whole lot more.

This program from Discovery Mountain Trek is not a regular trekking activity in Nepal. It is in fact, an experience unlike any other in this beautiful country.

DAY 4 : EXPLORE CHITWAN NATIONAL PARK

A UNESCO world Heritage Site, Chitwan National Park is best toured via a ride on an elephant's back - an Elephant Safari. In this national park, one can see the one-horned rhinoceros, the Royal Bengal tiger, more than 600 species of plants, 525 species of birds, and around 50 types of reptiles and amphibians. Some of the birds found in this national park are woodpeckers, hornbills, peacocks, cormorants, geese, pintails, and fowls. Apart from the elephant safari, a better way to see the park is to go on a jeep safari, which will take you deeper into the jungle and maximize your chance of seeing a lot more of the wildlife. Spend the day in the national park where you can also choose to hire a boat or canoe down the rivers.

This adventure capital is more than a stopover - it is a world of its own with attractions like several lakes, views of Fishtail, temples and pagodas, caves, rivers, gorges, waterfalls, and a lot of other geographical diversity. After a wonderful day of immersive tours, check back into the hotel for the night.

DAY 8 : DRIVE FROM POKHARA TO KATHMANDU 6/7H DRIVE

The temperature is moderate in these seasons and guarantees amazing views through the trip. Although this trek can be undertaken during winter, the cold temperature might not be suitable for everyone.

GUIDE & STAFF ARRANGEMENT

The most significant thing that makes this trek enjoyable and memorable is the skilled, experienced and helpful Guide and crew member who have the ability of guiding our trek on the mountain smoothly. Our trip will be led by the best and most professional Guide. All of Discovery Mountain Trekking Guide's are carefully selected on the basis of their appropriate experience, skills and personal aptitude. With an objective of sustaining local communities, Discovery Mountain only employs local Staff, who have knowledge about culture, ecosystem, flora, fauna, geography, and history of their local region.

PORTER CARE

We are firmly committed to porter rights. We make sure that all our porters are well treated, well paid and we provide the level of shelter, clothing and footwear that these harsh environments demand. Porters who become sick are treated with the same care and attention as other team members and we have previously used helicopters - at our expense - to rescue porters from dangerous situations. We support the work of the International Porter Protection Group (IPPG), making our resources available to them to help improve the working conditions of the porters. International Porters Progress Group.

ENVIRONMENTAL CONCERNS

The Everest Region is stunningly beautiful, but equally fragile. Future generations have just as much of a right to appreciate it as much as we do. Therefore, we believe that the tourism industry has an obligation to protect and preserve it. Discovery Mountain employs a 'zero impact' policy on the natural environment and the traditional communities that live there. Discovery Mountain, therefore, enforces a number of do's and don'ts. Please talk to your trek leader to avoid environmental impacts.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

It is a condition upon joining any of Discovery Mountain's trips that all clients be insured for comprehensive expenses that might incur due to medical issues or accidents (this includes air ambulance, helicopter rescue, and treatment costs). Please note that we don't arrange or sell insurance.

ACCLIMATIZATION

This trek's itinerary is planned with a high degree of awareness of AMS (Acute Mountain Sickness). Going up at higher altitudes too fast causes a medical condition serious enough to result in death. The higher the altitude, the less oxygen will be in the air. For example, at an altitude above of 5000m, there is 50% less oxygen than at sea level. Therefore, our body needs many days to adapt to an environment with less oxygen. During this trip, we take rest in Namche Bazaar and Dingboche which will help us acclimatize to the high altitude.
